ELIZABETH II

1963 CHAPTER XXIII

An Act to confirm a Provisional Order made by the Minister of Transport under the General Pier and Harbour Act 1861, relating to Bembridge Harbour.

[31st July 1963]

WHEREAS a Provisional Order made by the Minister of Transport under the General Pier and Harbour Act 1861 is not of any validity or force whatever until confirmation thereof by Act of Parliament:

And whereas it is expedient that the Provisional Order made by the Minister of Transport under the said Act which as amended is set out in the schedule to this Act be confirmed by Act of Parliament:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Confirmation by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and of Order in Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, schedule, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. The Order as set out in the schedule to this Act shall be Short title. and the same is hereby confirmed and all the provisions thereof in manner and form as they are set out in the said schedule shall from and after the passing of this Act have full validity and force.
2. This Act may be cited as the Pier and Harbour Order (Bembridge Harbour) Confirmation Act 1963.

SCHEDULE

BEMBRIDGE HARBOUR

Provisional Order to provide for the vesting in Bembridge Harbour Improvements Company Limited of the Bembridge Harbour (formerly known as Brading Harbour) to confer powers on the said Company with reference thereto and the maintenance, management and improvement thereof and for other purposes.

Short title.

1. This Order may be cited as the Bembridge Harbour Order 1963.

Commencement of Order.

2.—(1) Sections 1 (Short title), 2 (Commencement of Order), 3 (Interpretation), 4 (Undertakers), 8 (Power to Company to acquire harbour) and 47 (Costs of Order) of this Order shall come into operation upon the day when the Act confirming the Order is passed.

(2) Save as provided in subsection (1) of this section the Order shall come into operation on the day of transfer.

Interpretation.

Sect 26.

18. All persons being officers, servants, agents or contractors of Exemption for the River Board and for the time being actually employed in River Board, exercising or carrying out any powers, duties or functions of the River Board shall at all times have free ingress, passage and egress to, along and from the harbour and without payment.

19.—(1) In their application to the Company sections 530 and 532 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894 (which confer powers on the Company with respect to and with respect to anything in or wrecks.

on any vessel sunk, stranded or abandoned in such manner as to be an obstruction or danger to navigation in any part of the harbour or in or near any approach thereto) shall have effect—

(a) subject to the provisions of the next following section ; and

(b) in relation to a vessel sunk, stranded or abandoned before as well as after the commencement of this Order.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and to any enactment for the time being in force limiting his liability the Company may recover as a simple contract debt from the owner of any vessel in relation to which they have exercised their powers under the said section 530 any expenses reasonably incurred by them under that section in relation to that vessel which are not reimbursed out of any proceeds of sale within the meaning of that section.

(3) Except in a case which is in the opinion of the Company a case of emergency subsection (2) of this section shall not apply in relation to any vessel unless before exercising in relation to that vessel any of the powers conferred on them by the said section 530 other than the power of lighting and buoying the Company have given to the owner of the vessel not less than forty-eight hours' notice of their intention to do so and if before the notice expires the Company receive from the owner counter-notice in writing that he desires to dispose of the vessel himself and no direction is served in respect of the vessel under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the next following section he shall be at liberty to do so and the Company shall not exercise the powers aforesaid in relation to that vessel until the expiration of seven days from the receipt of the counter-notice and of any further continuous period thereafter during which the owner of the vessel proceeds with the disposal thereof with all reasonable diligence and in compliance with any directions for the prevention of interference with navigation which may be given to him by the Company.

(4) Notice under the last foregoing subsection to the owner of any vessel may be served by the Company either by delivering it to him or by sending it to him by post in a registered letter addressed to him at his last known place of business or abode in the United Kingdom or if the owner or any such place of business or abode is not known to the Company by displaying the notice at their place of business in the Isle of Wight for the period of its duration.

(5) In this section the expression "owner" in relation to any vessel means the person who was the owner of the vessel at the time of the sinking, stranding or abandoning thereof.

(Bembridge Harbour)
Confirmation Act 1963*

Protection of Crown

20.—(1) Without prejudice to section 741 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894 (which relates to the exemption from the provisions of that Act of vessels belonging to Her Majesty) as modified by an Order in Council made under section 80 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1906, the powers conferred on the Company by sections 530 and 532 of the said Act of 1894 shall not be exercisable—

(a) in relation to any vessel sunk, stranded or abandoned to design by or under the orders of a person acting on behalf of Her Majesty or an officer or servant of the Crown acting in the course of his duty as such ;

(b) except with the consent of the Admiralty which may be given with or without such a direction as is referred to in paragraph (b) of the next following subsection in relation to any vessel which is not excluded from the exercise of those powers by virtue of being a vessel belonging to Her Majesty but which at the time when the vessel was sunk, stranded or abandoned—

(i) had been required to be placed at the disposal of Her Majesty or of a government department ; and
(ii) was appropriated to the service under the direction and control of the Admiralty of Her Majesty's ships or war.

(2) The Company shall give notice in writing to the Admiralty and to the Minister of any decision of the Company to exercise in relation to any vessel any of the powers aforesaid other than the power of lighting and buoying and except in a case which is in the opinion of the Company a case of emergency shall not proceed with the exercise thereof—

(a) except with the consent of the Admiralty and the Minister before the expiration of a period of fourteen days from the giving of the notice ; or

(b) if before the expiration of the said period there is served on the Company a direction by the Admiralty or the Minister that those powers shall not be exercised in relation to that vessel except in such a case as aforesaid ;

and where in any such case as aforesaid the Company proceed to exercise those powers without the consent and before the expiration of the period mentioned in paragraph (a) of this subsection or after a direction has been served on them as aforesaid they shall not in the exercise of those powers use any explosives, and if before the expiration of the period aforesaid such a direction as aforesaid is served on them, shall not be entitled to exercise the power of sale conferred by the said section 530 or the power conferred by subsection (2) of the last foregoing section :

Provided that—

(i) the Company shall not be required to give notice under this subsection in respect of any vessel in respect of which they have received a consent under paragraph (b) of the foregoing subsection, but any direction such as is referred to in paragraph (b) of this subsection accompanying that consent shall be deemed for the purposes of this subsection and of subsection (3) of the last foregoing section to have been duly served under paragraph (b) of this subsection ;

(ii) the prohibition on the use of explosives imposed by this subsection shall not apply to the use for cutting away the superstructure of a vessel of such small explosive charges as may for the time being be approved by the Minister for the purposes of this proviso.

(3) Without prejudice to the power of sale conferred on the Company by the said section 530 the Company shall hold and dispose of any wreck within the meaning of Part IX of the said Act of 1894 raised, removed or recovered under that section, and any surplus proceeds of sale within the meaning of that section in accordance with such directions (if any) as may be given to them by the receiver of wreck and on exercising the said power of sale in the case of any property the Company shall discharge any sums payable in respect of that property by way of duties of customs or excise, purchase tax or charge in respect of sugar or molasses, and any sums so or discharged shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by the Company under that section.

(4) Any limitation on the powers of the Company in relation to any vessel arising by virtue of subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section shall not operate to authorise the exercise in relation to that vessel of the powers conferred on the Trinity House by section 531 of the said Act of 1894.

21. Section 52 of the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 in its application to the Company and the harbour master shall extend to empower the harbour master to give directions prohibiting the mooring of vessels in any particular part or parts of the harbour.

22. Section 53 of the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 in its application to the Company and the harbour master shall not be construed to require the harbour master to serve a notice in writing of his in writing directions upon the master of a vessel, but such directions may be given verbally or otherwise communicated to such master, but a notice that is not in writing shall not be deemed sufficient unless in the opinion of the court before whom any case may be heard it was not reasonably practicable to serve a written notice on the master of the vessel.

23.—(1) The Company may enter upon and from time to time dredge, scour, deepen and improve the bed and foreshore of the sea within the harbour and the channels and approaches thereto.

(2) All sand, mud and other materials dredged up or removed shall be the property of the Company and they may sell or otherwise dispose of or remove or deposit the same as they think fit.

(3) The powers of the Company under this section shall be exercisable subject to the provisions of section 46 (Crown rights) of this Order and in particular and without prejudice to that general limitation any consent given to the exercise of such powers by the Power to dredge and sell materials.

Crown Estate Commissioners on behalf of Her Majesty may be given subject to such restrictions and conditions, including the payment by the Company to those Commissioners of royalties, rents or sums of money in respect of materials raised from any place below high-water mark and sold or otherwise disposed of or removed or deposited by the Company under this section or in respect of any place below high-water mark upon which materials may be deposited as may be fixed by the Crown Estate Commissioners:

Provided that no materials raised under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in any place below the level of mean high-water springs otherwise than in such a position and under such restrictions and regulations as may be fixed by the Minister.

(4) The powers of the Company under this section other than for maintenance shall not be exercised without the consent of the River Board, but such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld and any question whether such consent has been unreasonably withheld shall be referred to and determined by arbitration.

(5) The powers of the Company under this section shall be exercisable subject to the provisions of section 16 (Saving rights of Sir Graham Hamond Graeme) of the Brading Harbour and Railway Act 1896, and that section shall have effect as if therein the reference where it secondly occurs to "this Act" included a reference to this Order.

Byelaws.

24.—(1) The Company may from time to time make such byelaws as to them seem meet for all or any of the following purposes:—

- (a) for the regulation of the mooring, careening, beaching or anchoring and keeping of vessels and houseboats in the harbour;
- (b) for the regulation of the placing, laying down, maintaining, using and having existing and future moorings in the harbour and for the prescription of patterns of moorings in the harbour;
- (c) for securing the good and orderly conduct of persons in charge of or using vessels or houseboats in the harbour;
- (d) for the prevention of nuisances and offences against decency in the harbour;
- (e) for the regulation of the disposal of rubbish and sewage from vessels or houseboats in the harbour;
- (f) for the prevention of the disposal of rubbish (including ballast, stones, earth, clay or other refuse) in the harbour;
- (g) for the regulation and control in the harbour of the navigation and speed of vessels and the prevention of obstruction to vessels using the harbour.

(2) The byelaws which may from time to time be made by the Company in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred on them by section 83 of the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 and by subsection (1) of this section may provide for the imposition of a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for the breach or non-observance of any of the byelaws.

(3) The provisions of subsections (2) to (7) of section 250 and section 252 of the Local Government Act 1933 shall apply to all byelaws to be made by the Company in respect of the undertaking and all fines or penalties imposed for the breach of any such byelaws shall be recoverable in manner provided by that Act for the recovery of penalties and the said sections 250 and 252 shall for the purposes of this subsection be construed as if the Company were a local authority within the meaning of those sections and the secretary of the Company were the clerk of the local authority.

(4) In the application of such last-mentioned provisions the Minister shall be the confirming authority.

(5) The Company shall—

(a) not less than one month before making byelaws furnish the County Council, the Corporation and the River Board with a draft of the proposed byelaws; and

(b) when applying to the Minister for confirmation of the byelaws, furnish him with a copy of any representations made to the Company in writing by either the County Council, the Corporation or the River Board, and a statement showing the effect, if any, given to any such representation.

(6) The powers of the Company to make byelaws under section 83 of the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 shall extend so as to enable them to make byelaws for prohibiting the mooring of vessels within any area or areas defined in the byelaws, except with the consent of the harbour master and upon such conditions as he may reasonably require.

25. The Company may appoint officers for securing the observance of the byelaws and regulations made by the Company under the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 and this Order in respect of the harbour.

Appointment of officers to enforce byelaws and regulations.

26. Subject to the provisions of this Order the Company may by agreement purchase and hold for the purposes of this Order any lands in addition to those vested in the Company under and in pursuance of this Order, but with respect to such additional lands nothing in this Order or in the Acts incorporated therewith shall exempt the Company from any indictment, action or other proceedings for nuisance in the event of any nuisance being caused or permitted by them thereon.

27.—(1) Any person empowered by the Lands Clauses Acts to sell and convey or release lands may if he thinks fit subject to the provisions of those Acts grant to the Company any easement or right required for the purposes of this Order in, over or affecting any such lands (not being an easement or right of water in which some person other than the grantor has an interest).

(2) The provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rent-charges so far as they are applicable shall extend and apply to any such grant and to any such easement or right as aforesaid.

28.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Lands Clauses Acts to the contrary the Company may—

Retention and disposal of lands.

(a) retain and hold and use for such time as they think fit any land or interest in land acquired by them under this Order;

- (b) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any such land or interest no longer required for the purpose of the undertaking in such manner, and for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as they think fit (whether in consideration of the execution of works or of the payment of a gross sum or of an annual rent or of payment in any other form);
 - (c) sell, exchange or dispose of any rents reserved on the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of any such land or interest;
 - (d) make, do and execute any deed, act or thing proper for effectuating any such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition;
 - (e) on any such exchange pay or receive money for equality of exchange.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall release the Company or any person purchasing or acquiring any land or interest in land from them under this section from any rents, covenants, restrictions, reservations, terms or conditions made payable by or contained in any conveyance, lease or other deed or instrument by which the land or interest has been conveyed or leased to or otherwise acquired by the Company or any persons from or through whom the Company have derived title to it.

Power to sell

29.—(1) The Company may (if authorised so to do by their memorandum and articles of association and subject to the powers and provisions thereof) with the previous consent in writing of and upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as may be approved by the Minister sell the undertaking and the purchaser to the extent authorised by his conveyance shall have and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon the Company by this Order and which the Company have or might exercise under this Order and shall be subject to all the liabilities and obligations in respect of the undertaking to which the Company are subject and shall perform all the duties of the Company under this Order.

(2) The Company shall within one month after the date of any conveyance made under this section deposit a certified copy thereof at the Ministry of Transport and shall upon failure to do so be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Power to lease
undertaking.

30.—(1) The Company may with the previous consent in writing of and upon such terms, conditions and restrictions and for such period as may be approved by the Minister, lease the undertaking to any company, corporation or person.

(2) As from the commencement of any lease made under the last preceding subsection the lessee during the continuance of, and to the extent provided in his lease, shall have and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon the Company by this Order or which the Company have or might exercise under this Order and shall be subject to all the liabilities and obligations in respect of the undertaking to which the Company are subject and shall perform all the duties of the Company under this Order.

(3) No lease made under subsection (1) of this section shall be assignable without the previous consent in writing of the Minister and the provisions of this Order with respect to such lease or to the lessee shall apply to any such assignment or to the assignee respectively.

(4) The Company shall within one month after the date of any lease made under this section or of any assignment of the said lease deposit a certified copy thereof at the Ministry of Transport and shall upon failure to do so be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

(5) Notwithstanding that under this section the power to levy any rates for which statutory maxima are fixed by this Order is transferred to the Company to some other person the rates in respect of which the power to levy is so transferred shall for the purposes of section 6 of the Transport Charges &c. (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1954 be deemed to be charges (within the meaning of the said Act of 1954) which the Company are for the time being authorised to demand and take in pursuance of the said Acts and in connection with any application for the revision of such rates the provisions of the said section 6 shall apply as if the said power to levy had not been so transferred.

31.—(1) If in respect of any financial year of the undertaking the Application moneys received by the Company on account of the revenue of the of surplus undertaking shall exceed the expenses of the undertaking, the Company shall apply such excess in or towards the dredging of the harbour or the renewal, construction or improvement of any of the works.

(2) In this section "the expenses of the undertaking" means moneys expended or applied by the Company in the working, management and maintenance of the undertaking and in meeting such other costs, charges and expenses of the undertaking as are properly chargeable to revenue, including reasonable contributions to any reserve, contingency or other fund and a reasonable return on the paid-up share capital of the undertaking.

32.—(1) The Company shall within six months after the date to Annual which their annual accounts and balance sheet are made up send accounts to be a copy of the same to the Minister, and section 16 of the General Pier and Harbour Act 1861 Amendment Act shall apply to and include the Company and any and every such accounts.

(2) The Company shall as from the expiration of that period be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for every refusal or neglect to comply with the foregoing provisions.

33. All conveyances, grants, leases, assurances, deeds and agree- Saving of ments (other than any agreement made under section 8 (Power to agreements, etc. Company to acquire harbour) of this Order) affecting the undertaking and in force immediately before the day of transfer shall on and from that day be as binding and of as full force and effect in every respect and may be enforced as fully and effectually against or in favour of the Company as if instead of the Board the Company had been a party thereto or bound thereby or entitled to the benefit thereof, but nothing in this Order or done thereunder shall prejudice or affect the right of the Company to terminate any such conveyance grant, lease, assurance, deed or agreement at such time and in such manner as it might have been terminated if this Order had not been made.

Inquiries by Minister.

34. The Minister may cause to be held any such inquiry as he may consider necessary in regard to the exercise of any powers or duties conferred or imposed upon him and the giving of any consent or approval or the making of any order or the confirmation of any byelaw under this Order, and section 290 of the Local Government Act 1933 shall apply to such inquiry as if it were an inquiry held in pursuance of subsection (1) of that section and the Company were a local authority.

Cables, pipes or wires under or across tidal waters.

35. Notwithstanding anything in this Order any cables, pipes or wires to be laid or placed under the powers of this Order by the Company on, under or over any tidal waters or tidal lands below the level of mean high-water spring tides shall be laid or placed at such depth under or such height over the tidal waters or tidal lands as the Minister may require.

Recovery of penalties.

36.—(1) All fines, penalties and forfeitures recoverable under this Order or under any byelaw made in pursuance of section 24 of this Order or section 83 of the Harbours Clauses Act 1847 may be recovered in a summary manner.

(2) Any costs or expenses recoverable as aforesaid may be recovered summarily as civil debts where the amount recoverable does not exceed twenty pounds.

Byelaws to remain in force.

37. All byelaws, rules and regulations and all orders made by the Board under any enactment relating to the harbour or any part thereof and in force at the commencement of this Order shall remain in force for the period of four years beginning on the day of transfer unless revoked by the Company, and all penalties incurred thereunder and all forfeitures which have ensued by reason thereof may be enforced and recovered by the Company in like manner as the same respectively might have been enforced and recovered by the Board in case this Order had not been made.

Charges for services not otherwise provided for.

38. Subject to the provisions of this Order the Company may (so far as the rates and charges for which provision is made in sections 13 and 15 and the Second Schedule to this Order do not extend) demand and recover such reasonable charges or other consideration as they may determine in respect of any services rendered by them in connection with the harbour.
